

Emotions Match

Children sometimes struggle to name or show their feelings. This activity uses simple faces and short stories to help your child connect everyday moments with emotions.

Story (short & simple):

"Kim just got an A on her spelling test."

"Drew's sister just took his toy from him."

"Aaron lost his favorite toy on the playground."

"It is Harper's first day at her new school."

"Brigitte saw a big spider outside."

Cut & Laminate Add-ons:

- Faces: Happy, Sad, Angry, Worried, Scared
- Instruction strip (Cut and laminate): "Match the feeling with the face."

Match the feeling with the face.

Match the Emotion

Directions: Read each character's description and look at their picture. Find the word that says how each character feels. Draw a line from the character to the correct emotion.

Kim just got an A on her spelling test.

Drew's sister just took his toy from him.

Aaron lost his favorite toy on the playground.

It is Harper's first day at her new school.
